Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's response filed on 5/13/04 has been considered.
2. In response to applicant's question regarding the listing of the first inventor, it has been found that this nonprovisional application, as filed, indicates the Trajkovic as a first inventor. If you want to make any correction of error without any deceptive intent, you must submit a petition under 37 CFR 1.48.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments see pages 2-9, filed 5/13/04, with respect to the rejection(s) of claims 1-15 under 103(a) has been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made as follow.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 2625

Claims 1-15 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-4, and 10-20 of U.S. Patent No. 6,633,232 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they set forth subject matters, which are obvious over each other and only differ in breath of terminology used. For example, a limitation of "gathering place" in preamble of the claim 1 of the instant application is an obvious variation in the meaning of the preamble " a three dimensional space with multiple destination" of claim 1 of the Patent (column 9, lines 9-10) because they are disclosed as being the same feature. Similarly a limitation of "value dependent thereon" in lines 4-5 of the instant claim 1 is an obvious variation in meaning of the limitation " costs including crowd density dependent thereon" in claim 1 of the Patent (column 9, lines 14-15).

Similarly independent claims 5 and 11 of the instant application correspond to patented claims 10 and 16 respectively.

Similarly a limitation of "map" in line 1 of claim 2 of the instant application is an obvious variation in the meaning of the limitation "path" in claim 2 of the Patent (column 9, line 19).

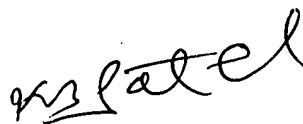

Other dependent claims are similarly analyzed and rejected.
